SPOCS Scouting Tournament To Hold At MKO Abiola Stadium Abuja

BY RAYMOND NWADUBA

The Federal Capital Territory (FCT), Abuja version of SPOCS Scouting Tournament has been scheduled to hold at the elegant MKO Abiola National Stadium, organizers have disclosed.

The program, which will commence from November 24 and end November 28, 2023, we were told will attract about 20 top teams from the FCT and beyond.

Speaking exclusively to us concerning this development, an excited Gbenga Agbejire, SPOCS Nigeria representative, maintained that they are set again for another mouth-watering football fiesta that will showcase the best amongst the best in Abuja.

"Abuja here we come was exactly how the amiable Agbejire chose to begin.

"We did it at Ibadan, Remo, Ogun State, we're going to do it again in Abuja even better this time.

November 28. "National Stadium Abuja is the venue from November 24. "See you there, as I'm expecting to see all of you who loves good quality football that's made in Naija". The SPOCS fever has already gripped Abuja as teams scramble to be part of the much-anticipated interesting event.

European Top Clubs Scramble For SPOCS Players

BY RAYMOND NWADUBA

European giants Bayern Leverkusen, Fiorentina, Tottenham Hotspur, Rapid Vienna, Sturm Graz, Red Star Belgrade, Vojvodina and American sides, Vancouver Whitecaps, Chicago Fire are amongst some of the top teams scrambling for the signatures of the selected players by SPOCS in their just concluded largely successful scouting tournament in Abuja.

The program which was concluded November 27 at the main hall of the MKO Abiola national stadium, FCT, Abuja, unearthed new 15 top players selected from the 36 teams that participated in the tournament by the eagle eyes of SPOCS officials led by its CEO/Founder Saachi Elnachar who together with others such as Geoffrey Lockhart, a former Newcastle United chief scout, were on hand during the 5 days program to do the selection themselves.

Shortly after the program ended when the interests or queue to snap the young talented players started raining or pouring in quick succession to the chagrin of many. But that goes to reaffirm or serve as a testament to the quality of raw talents that were paraded at the tournament.

Revealing this much was SPOCS indefatigable Nigeria Director, Gbenga Agbejire who spoke to newsmen at the end of the tournament to announce the selected players that made the cut and the efforts by the renewed agency which was already yielding almost immediate results.

The charged club Owners therefore ensure they take advantage of the platform and opportunity provided by SPOCS to market their players but only the very top talents will be considered as the organization works with some of the finest clubs in Europe, America and Asia.

"We thank God for another successful scouting tournament in Abuja after recording similar successes in Remo, Ogun state and in Bayelsa state.

"I can tell you for free that the 15 players our team of top scouts selected from this tournament is already attracting great interest from top European clubs such as Bayern Leverkusen, Fiorentina, Tottenham Hotspur, Rapid Vienna, Sturm Graz, Red Star Belgrade, Vojvodina and American sides, Vancouver Whitecaps, Chicago Fire amongst others.

"We are however working to close the deals and ensure that only the best clubs that can guarantee the progressive development of our players are considered", he stated.
